

Bidaai producer to do a show on Colors

RAJAN Shahi, who has two top-ranking serials on STAR Plus, is all set to produce a show for a rival channel, Colors. According to sources, the serial that deals with an emotional subject and relationships is an important show for the channel as well as the producer-director. Currently, the hunt is on for the lead actors and locations. However, when contacted, Rajan refused to divulge any details except that he is doing the show and "everything else is under wraps".

Rajan Shahi's new offerings

Even as his Yeh Rishta Kya Kehlata Hai continues to be popular on Star Plus, Rajan Shahi is all set to produce two new shows, Kuch Toh Log Kahenge for Sony and Havan for Colors. While Kuch Toh... starring Mohnish Bahl, Rukhsar and Kritika Kamra is pitched as a "different kind of love story," Havan revolves around a godman played by Narendra Jha, best known for his turn as Raavan in a serial by the same name. Incidentally, this will be the first time that Rajan will be working with seasoned actors in the lead roles. His serials like Bidaai, Yeh Rishta.. etc had newcomers as protagonists. Says Rajan, "It was the requirement of the script. Now, I am making different kinds of shows that need established actors." Mohnish according to him is "a brilliant actor who underplays his role beautifully." As for Havan, it dwells on the aspect of faith that people have in God and how that faith turns a man into a godman.
