

Kritika Kamra is Rajan's new muse

She is the third prominent face after Shubhangi Aatre and Kunal Verma from Ekta Kapoor's camp to feature in the maker's show

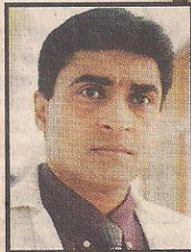

Kritika Kamra who catapulted to fame with Ekta Kapoor's Kitani Mohabbat Hai will be seen romancing a much older Mohnish Behl. The show that also features Rukhsar is set against the premise of a hospital. Mohnish plays a senior doctor and Kritika too joins the same hospital as a doctor. The two eventually fall in love. This is a love story of a

UNUSUAL PAIR:
Kritika Kamra and (inset) Mohnish Behl

'This again is an unusual love story...many popular names were auditioned like Apoorva Agnihotri and Cezanne Khan' middle-aged man and a young girl. After casting Shubhangi Aatre in a prominent role, producer Rajan Shahi has roped in Kritika Kamra, who has become the third actress to join his camp. Informs a source closely associated with the show, "After tasting success with the mature love story Bade Achhe Lagte Hai, the channel has now pinned its hope on Rajan's show. This again is an unusual love story. Many popular names like Apoorva Agnihotri and Cezanne Khan were auditioned for the role of the senior doctor but Mohnish was finalised in the end." Interestingly, this will be third time Behl will be seen essaying the character of a doctor: he was earlier seen as a doctor in Sanjeevani and Dill Mill Gayye. Wise choice we say, as the actor certainly must have become seasoned at playing a doctor. While Kritika didn't revert to our text message, Mohnish confirmed that he is doing the show. Producer Rajan chose not to comment.

Neha Maheshwri